Rules and Regulations

1. Exercise Challenge 2022 sponsored by Salinas Valley Memorial Healthcare System is open to all organizations and individuals in Monterey County except those that gather solely for the purpose of exercising together, such as athletic clubs.
2. To enter, both individuals and organizations must register online. Workplaces that enter the program are not required to provide time off for their employees to exercise. Organizations and individuals may withdraw at any time.
3. Once an organization has entered the program, all of its members are eligible to enter except as specified in #1 above. Individual participants can sign up on the Exercise Challenge 2022 Progress Chart. Participants may withdraw from the program at any time.
4. Individuals that answer YES to one or more of the Health Check questions located on the waiver should obtain their physician's approval before participating in Exercise Challenge 2022.
5. Participants must complete a minimum of 150-minutes of moderate physical activity per week, totaling a minimum of 600 minutes. Individuals who do not meet the weekly minimum of 150-minutes regardless of time completed at the end of the month will NOT be eligible for a raffle prize. Prizes will be given based on number of exercise minutes. Tier one prizes (Raffle A) will be eligible for individuals who complete >1,000 minutes of moderate aerobic activity. Tier two prizes (Raffle B) will be eligible for individuals who complete between >751-999 minutes of moderate aerobic activity. Tier three prizes (Raffle C) will be eligible to individuals who complete between >600-750 minutes of moderate aerobic activity. Individuals who complete less than the required 600 minutes will not be eligible for a raffle prize.
6. Only aerobic exercise of at least 15 continuous minutes or more will be counted. Examples of aerobic activities include brisk walking, jogging, hiking, swimming, bicycling, tennis or racquetball, basketball, aerobic dancing, jumping rope, rowing, roller skating, rollerblading, stair climbing or skiing and snowboarding.
7. The program sponsors reserve the right to extend dates, interpret these rules and determine eligibility at their discretion.
